Family pay tribute to 'devoted' 28-year-old dad killed in motorbike crash

'The world is darker place without Liam'

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

THE family of a 28-year-old man who died following a motorbike crash have paid tribute to the 'kind, caring and devoted father'.

Keen motorcyclist Liam Corgan, from Highland Close, Bletchley, died last Wednesday after a crash with another motorbike on the A422 near Deanshanger.

Speaking to MK NEWS, Liam's family, including partner Stacey Flynn, parents Graham and Toni and siblings Shaun and Simone, said: "A devoted father, partner, son and brother, Liam is loved by so many.

"The world seems a darker and broken place without his laughter, smile and cheeky nature.

"He was a gentle soul whose world revolved around his son. Liam was kind, caring and he didn't think there was a problem in the world that couldn't be solved over a cup of tea.

"His passion for motorbikes and MotoGP was the catalyst for many great friendships and experiences.

"As a family, we have taken great comfort from the kind words and gestures offered by friends and family. We know he'll be waiting at the finish line for us.

"Liam leaves behind his soulmate Stacey and the light of his life, his four-year-old son Riley."

Liam was driving a blue Yamaha R1 when the crash happened at about 11.50pm on Monday, May 18.

A 45-year-old man, who was on a black Harley Davidson, was travelling from Old Stratford in the opposite direction.

At the time of going to press he remained in a critical and life-threatening condition at the John Radcliffe Hospital in Oxford.

Following the news of Liam's death, friends and former colleagues have set up a Go Fund Me page to support Stacey and Riley.

So far people have donated more than £700, which the page says is for 'Stacey to use as she wishes, whether it's to take longer off work, pay some bills, have a day out, or take Riley away for a much-needed holiday to spend some precious time with him'.

The page goes on to say: "Everyone has been shocked and saddened at the news and nobody can begin to imagine just what pain Stacey and the lovely Riley are going through.

"I'm sure we can all picture ourselves in her now unwanted and frankly cruel position.

"Liam Corgan was a great colleague, a dedicated dad and a soulmate to the wonderful, strong and brave Stacey.Please give you what you can."

Anyone who witnessed the collision can call Northamptonshire Police on 101.

Choir tries singing and signing

Students from Chestnuts Primary School in Bletchley will be the only choir signing as well as signing a song to welcome players to the Rugby World Cup. The choir is one of just 20 selected by world cup organisers and will welcome the Samoan rugby team with the tournament's official anthem World in Union. The pupils, all in years two to five, will travel to a secret location in Brighton on September 11 to sing. Headteacher Allison Collis said: "We were delighted when we found out. To be selected as one of 20 schools in the country is phenomenal."

Car park attack

A SHOPPER had coffee thrown at him and was racially abused by two women in a supermarket car park.

The 24-year-old man was reversing his white Mitsubishi Evo in Morrisons car park in Westcroft, outside Costa Coffee, at 3.25pm on Sunday, May 10.

A blonde-haired women and another with red hair approached his vehicle and shouted racial remarks at him.

The woman with blonde hair then threw hot coffee over the victim and his car.

Investigating officer PC Rebecca Wade said: "I would like to reassure the public that we are investigating this offence. Assaults and racist behaviour will not be tolerated in our community."

The blonde offender is in her mid-30s, of medium build, with straight, medium-length hair. She was wearing jeans and was carrying a handbag and shopping bag.

The red-haired offender is also in her mid-30s, slim, with short hair. She was wearing glasses and trousers.

Anyone who witnessed the assault, or knows the identity of the offenders, is asked to call the police on 101. Alternatively, call Crimestopers on 0800 555 111.

Thieves targeting women drivers

THIEVES have been preying on women in car parks.

There have been six thefts in the last three weeks in which bags, wallets or credit cards have been stolen from cars while the female drivers were distracted.

The latest took place on May 19, when a man took credit cards from a car parked at Tesco in Bletchley while another male asked the victim for directions.

On May 16, a woman's handbag was stolen while she was sitting in her car in Secklow Gate.

A bag was also taken from a the boot of a car in Marlborough Gate while the victim was helping her sister into the vehicle on May 14.

A day earlier, a Gucci handbag was stolen from a car parked at Tesco in Winchester Circle, Kingston. The 34-year-old victim left her handbag in the passenger seat while she took back her trolley. When she returned it was missing.

Police have released a CCTV image, left, of a man they would like to speak to in connection with the theft. The handbag is black and contained a red wallet, cash, a white Samsung Galaxy S3 Mini with a smashed screen and a Nokia phone.

On May 9, a woman was asked by a man for directions as she returned to her car in Waitrose car park, Oakgrove. Another man entered her car and stole a wallet.

At Sainsbury's car park in Bletchley, a woman withdrew cash and placed it in her bag in the back of her car on May 6. She then heard a car horn and, while distracted, a man opened the door and stole the bag.

Anyone with information should call police on 101.

Woman falls from bridge

A WOMAN is currently in a serious condition in hospital after she fell from a bridge in Fishermead on Monday night.

Police were called to V7 Saxon Street at about 8.30pm after receiving reports over fears for the welfare of a woman.

While officers were at the scene attempting to communicate with her, she fell from a bridge and suffered serious injuries.

She was taken to The John Radcliffe Hospital in Oxford for treatment, where she remained in a serious condition at the time of going to press.

An eyewitness told MK NEWS: "The police arrived and parked their car under the bridge. They were trying to talk her down and she was shouting back at them. After about 20 minutes it looked like she was trying to get up and then all of a sudden she fell or slipped onto what looked like to be on the bonnet of the police car."

The V7 was closed while officers remained at the scene and members of the public were asked to avoid the area. Surrounding roads including Oldbrook Boulevard and Fishermead Boulevard were also partially closed.

Mum's warning over park slide

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

A MOTHER-OF-FOUR is warning other parents after a pole above a slide at a park fell off and hit her 18-month-old daughter on the head.

Maddison David was left with a bump the size of a golf ball on Monday after playing on the slide in Tinkers Bridge Local Park, which is run by Milton Keynes Council (MKC).

Her mum Kayleigh, 28, from Buckby, watched the horror unfold and rushed Maddison to A&E at Milton Keynes University Hospital, where she was treated for concussion.

The special needs teaching assistant said: "I helped Maddison up the slide steps and then ran around to get her from the bottom but the pole she was holding onto to help her sit on the slide just came off.

"You expect your children to be safe on the equipment in a park.

"Like many parents I let some of my older children go to the park on their own and if they were swinging on the pole like kids do this could have been much worse.

"You don't think to check the equipment when you go to parks, but now I feel like I have to.

"MKC should check the equipment at its parks more regularly.

"I just wanted to take my little girl to the park on bank holiday as I am usually working.

Kayleigh David with a sleeping Maddison and, inset, the bump on her head

MKC taped off the slide until the pole was fixed and has apologised to Mrs David.

A spokesman said: "We are investigating as a matter of urgency and we sent someone down immediately to inspect the play equipment."

Arrests after fire damages cars

THREE people have been arrested for arson after cars were damaged in the early hours of Monday morning.

Neighbours in Horners Croft, Wolverton, told MK NEWS they heard 'a commotion' and 'saw the fire engines arrive' after the three vehicles were damaged by fire.

One person, who did not want to be named, said: "We have never heard of anything like this happening here before."

Firefighters from Great Holm attended the scene, which was in the middle of a residential car park, at 1.14am and used one hose reel to put out the flames.

Two men, aged 19 and 20, and a 21-year-old woman, all from Milton Keynes, were arrested later the same day.

Thames Valley Police and Buckinghamshire Fire and Rescue Service are still investigating and anyone with information can call police on 101, or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Driven by your views

CONTRARY to the beliefs of your correspondents regarding the cuts to the bus service, Arriva did undertake a public consultation.

The residents of Greenleys, Hodge Lea, Two Mile Ash and Great Holm have simply not been using their 20-minute daytime bus frequency.

Just occasionally I have been the only passenger for a substantial part of my journey between my home and Milton Keynes Central.

In contrast, the section of the number four route between Central Milton Keynes and Bletchley is likely to have joining or alighting passengers every single stop between the hospital and the bus station, even on the 10-minute frequency operated on that portion of the former route between Wolverton and Bletchley.

FOLLOW US ON TWITTER and get the latest updates on decisions that affect YOU @YourMKWeb

For years the morning and afternoon school run has caused scheduled bus diversions to avoid the congestion around the schools in Two Mile Ash and Greenleys.

The new route 14 abolishes the former and reduces the latter to three individual journeys. Is this not an improvement of the service to bus users?

Those who are aggrieved can come to the bus user group's meeting, taking place at Acorn House tomorrow at 6pm.

What you said

We asked readers if drivers use lanes properly on MK's roads. Here's a selection of your comments.

Join in with the debate at facebook.com/mymkweb or email letters@mk-news.co.uk

Louise Thacker: "Some drivers are terrible. It really scares you when driving round roundabouts and people really wind me up when they don't indicate. People drive like they don't have five minutes."

Karen Mumford: "Coming from CMK towards the A5 Portway roundabout there's lane swapping, undertaking, no indication, light jumping and horns going nearly every day. The road markings need to be re-done too!"

Marc Whelan: "MK is the best road system in the UK. If drivers drove on the left and overtook on the right and indicated properly at the roundabouts, life would be so much sweeter."

James Hulance-Taylor: "I drive all over the UK. I can honestly say MK has one of the best road networks in any town I have been to. But yes, lane discipline is terrible. Especially at the Kingston roundabout."

Terry N Boz Levitt: "I drive to and from work in my car and I am cut up with no indication, undertaking, excessive speed, rudeness and idiocy."

Samantha Ayres: "Countess Way in Broughton Gate is horrendous. Speeding cars using the bus lane, lazy drivers swerving between the sleeping policemen and no crossings for pedestrians making it a potential death trap. You would never guess it should be 30mph. Add lots of housing and a play and skate park and it's a dangerous mix."

Mike Swannell: "There's too many people who don't pay attention to which lane they need to be in. Daily I see someone in the wrong lane on the Abbey Hill roundabout."

Iain's Monthly Focus

Put your questions to Iain Stewart MP

MP reveals his plans for the next five years

ON MAY 7, Milton Keynes re-elected two Conservative MPs.

Iain Stewart MP was re-elected to represent Milton Keynes South and was on hand to answer your questions.

Congratulations Iain, how does it feel to have been re-elected?

I am absolutely delighted. It was an extremely long and tough campaign and the other local candidates put up a really good fight. In particular Labour candidate Andrew Pakes gave the campaign his all and I know what it feels like to be runner-up in an election. I am glad it is over and humbled that the people of Milton Keynes South have voted for me to represent them for five more years.

Were you surprised by the results?

For a long time I thought it was neck and neck; like the pollsters I thought we were probably going to have a hung parliament.

However, when we got into the final few weeks of the campaign I started to feel things move towards the Conservatives. Our messages on the economy, NHS, EU referendum and much more started to resonate with people in contrast to the UKIP, Lib Dem and Labour message that never really seemed coherent.

What is on your agenda for the next five years?

I ran my campaign on three key issues – continuing the campaign for more investment into MK hospital; making sure our economy continues to grow and create more jobs and apprenticeships; and finally to help shape a future vision for Milton Keynes and ensure that we have an infrastructure to support our population.

I will not be wasting any time on starting to address these points.

Change: Rob Harriman wants to encourage more people to use the redways and underpasses

Less crime on city's redways

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

THE number of crimes reported on redways and underpasses in Milton Keynes has reduced significantly since 2012.

According to a Freedom of Information (FOI) request by MK NEWS, Thames Valley Police has reported at least a 30 per cent annual reduction on crimes on underpasses and redways between 2012 and 2014.

In 2012, 45 crimes were reported, this reduced by 33.3 per cent in 2013 to 30 crimes and in 2014 only 17 crimes were reported – a reduction of 43 per cent.

These figures reinforce our Walk Safe campaign, which aims to get more people using the city's redway and underpasses.

As previously reported, this newspaper is working alongside Milton Keynes Council to improve resident's confidence in using them and make them look nicer.

Rob Harriman, street warden for Milton Keynes City Centre Management, is supporting the campaign.

He said: "In a night audit in winter 2014, the lighting in all the underpasses in central MK was working.

"And most were so bright you could see everything around."

Under Rob's watch, and working alongside the council's waste contractor Serco, graffiti has been removed from many underpasses.

Rob added: "Since October 2014 I have reported 353 graffiti tags in city centre underpasses.

"There are only 46 at the moment. Hopefully, removing unsightly graffiti will encourage more people to use them."

Nominate an underpass to be improved. Email the name and picture to editor@mk-news.co.uk

Owen to address cuts rally

POLITICAL commentator and Guardian columnist Owen Jones will address a rally against austerity, cuts and privatisation of public services.

The protest, organised by campaign group Milton Keynes Against the Cuts, will be at the Church of Christ the Cornerstone on Wednesday, June 3 from 7-9pm.

Also making a speech to protesters will be Christine Blower, who is general secretary of the National Union of Teachers.

The rally will promote the People's Assembly national demonstration End Austerity Now in London on Saturday June 20, to where a free coach from Milton Keynes will run.

Kevin Vickers, chairman of Milton Keynes Against the Cuts, said: "We're excited to welcome such speakers and hope to make this the largest political meeting for some years in MK."

Grieving dad was Tasered

A FATHER who thought the police were not doing enough to catch his son's killers shouted abuse at officers in the street and put a large kitchen knife to his throat.

Adam Fanelli, 49, was in such a state of high emotion he had to be Tasered before he was arrested.

His 31-year-old son, also called Adam, was found dead at a travellers site at Nash Park in Nash, Buckinghamshire, on March 17 this year.

Mr Fanelli, of Houghton Regis, pleaded guilty to affray yesterday at Luton Crown Court and had his four-month prison sentence suspended.

Getting set: Jim and Albert from intu Milton Keynes with some of the Everyone's Invited bunting

Intu in call for bunting

INTU Milton Keynes shopping centre is calling on people to help bring out the bunting – literally!

The centre's Everyone's Invited party is planned for June 27 and 28.

Intu's biggest celebration of the year is being held for the second time and will see a variety of entertainment in the centre, which the management team wants to fill with bunting made by the local community.

Marketing manager Kirsty McGiff said: "As soon as people walk into the centre we want them to think 'celebration'.

"Bunting is a fun way to transform the mall and if many people can make it, we will show the true spirit of Milton Keynes."

If you are interested in supporting the 'bunting challenge' contact Kirsty at Kirsty.Mcgiff@intu.co.uk or intu Milton Keynes' customer services on 01908 557000.

Police hunt after attempted rape

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

POLICE have appealed for witnesses following an attempted rape.

An 18-year-old woman was walking her dog in Oakridge Park, near the Grand Union Canal, at about 2pm on Friday when a man approached her, pushed her to the ground and attempted to rape her. She managed to escape and run home to contact the police.

The offender is a 25 to 35-year-old man, 5ft 10ins, medium build, with brown eyes and an accent. He was wearing a black beanie hat and grey tracksuit bottoms.

Detective Chief Inspector Kelly Glister, from Milton Keynes Force CID, said: "This incident took place during the day. People may have seen or heard something and I would ask them to contact the police on 101 with any information, no matter how small the detail.

"There will be extra patrols in the area offering advice and reassurance and anyone with any concerns can contact 101.

"Thames Valley Police takes all reports of this nature extremely seriously and will be conducting a thorough investigation.

"At this early stage of the investigation we do not believe the incident is linked to any other recent reports."

If you do not want to speak directly to the police you can contact Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555111.

Police had surrounded the property after receiving information those inside were linked with a burglary.

Two men walked out and surrendered to police.

Big Show 'a big disappointment'

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

THE organisers of The Big Outdoor Show admitted they were disappointed with the number of visitors but have vowed to look at complaints to make next year's event bigger and better.

Lots of feedback was left on the show's Facebook page after visitors from all over the country travelled to the three-day event at Willen Lake over the bank holiday weekend but were left feeling 'ripped off'.

The aim of the event was to promote outdoor activities in Milton Keynes and get more people interested in the water sports, cycling and camping on offer in the area.

There were also bike stunt and water sport shows and seminars from explorers including Sir Ranulph Fiennes.

But both visitors and exhibitors at the event complained it was a 'waste of money' and 'not big at all'. Some visitors, however, did leave positive feedback about the exotic animal encounters and bike show.

Visitors were disappointed with the lines of stalls at the show

Organiser Pauline Gibson said: "I was really disappointed with the footfall and thought we would get more local support.

"We will be taking all the feedback on board to make next year bigger and better.

"This is a learning curve and I feel very passionate about the event."

Chris Withington was one of those who commented on the Facebook page. He said: "I travelled 200 miles and we paid a lot of money for our stand. Never will we return."

Brooke Vargyas added: "Very poor value for money. It cost £22 for two adults and a toddler to walk round stalls and watch an admittedly very good stunt bike show.

"There were very few activities on offer and they were all chargeable on top of the entrance fee. Feel totally ripped off."

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Billy Harley feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Bedford, Milton Keynes & Leighton Buzzard areas and Billy is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Billy a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Stay safe: Mohammed Khan is keen to avoid tragedies like those of Emily Johnson and Paul Allsop at the Blue Lagoon

Repeated calls for lake safety

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

THE family of a young woman who drowned has echoed the calls of a councillor to stay safe in open water as the weather gets warmer.

Emily Johnson, 20, tragically died on August 1 last year after drowning in the Blue Lagoon in Bletchley, just days after Paul Allsop, 61, had also died at the beauty spot.

And now that the weather is warming up, the family have joined Bletchley councillor Mohammed Khan to urge people to be vigilant as the temptation to swim in open waters increases.

Emily's uncle Sean Johnson told MK NEWS: "The key thing is for people to remember to keep an eye out for and watch over each other. There's plenty of other places to go for designated swimming.

"It can only take seconds. Emily was a healthy girl with no weakness at swimming and if it can take a young fit girl like that it can take anyone."

Cllr Khan added: "It looks like two signs warning people not to swim have been broken and thrown in the water.

"It is deep cold water and with summer coming people will come here and we need to publicise safety."

Group raise the bar to save pub

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

Community plan: Ray Smith outside The Swan in Old Stratford

SAVING your local pub can be thirsty work – but residents in one village are giving it their best shot.

A group of nine regulars have set up the Swan Action Group with the aim of buying The Swan in Old Stratford, which has been listed as a community asset.

The local is currently owned and operated by Punch Taverns, but has been up for sale for the last two years and not received any bids.

Now residents have set up the action group to raise the £320,000 needed to buy it and restore it to its former glory.

Ray Smith is one of the members of the group. He said: "When we heard that our village pub was in danger of being sold to the highest bidder, we got together determined to prevent this from happening.

"The pub has declined for the last 10-15 years and has been up for sale but, fortunately, no buyer has appeared yet so at the moment it is a community asset.

"The group is trying to raise the money to purchase it and to make it more than just a drinking place, more like a community hub."

The action group believes it can raise the money through the formation of a company funded via a Community Share issue.

They would also seek external grants, donations, bank loans and commercial mortgages, as well as hold fundraising events.

The action group is now targeting fellow residents of Old Stratford to gauge the level of interest in the project – and whether they would be willing to dig deep into their pockets.

Ray added: "None of this can happen without the help and support of everyone."

Helping city to fight rise in obesity

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

A FREE service is being launched in the city to help people who are obese or overweight.

The Public Health department at Milton Keynes Council is launching the initiative, which will give nutritional advice and offer physical exercise classes to help residents lose weight.

The service will launch within the next six months and is expected to last for a minimum of three years.

Muriel Scott, director of public health in MK, said: "We need to do all we can to support people to lose weight and live healthy lifestyles.

"These will be high quality services and will provide practical opportunities for people to learn about and try out nutrition and physical activity-based initiatives."

The service will be set in various locations throughout the city.

Statistics released in November 2014 by the NHS showed 73 per cent of the adult population in the city were either overweight or obese.

The new scheme will work alongside others already in operation in the city.

These include HALO, a 12-week lifestyle programme in which individuals are supported by dieticians to manage their weight through a healthy diet and physical activity.

There is also the Active MK Exercise Referral Scheme (AMKERS) – a 12-week programme of tailored exercise for inactive adults with an identified health condition.

A Special date for fans of Ska

NEVILLE Staples – best known for his role in ska band The Specials – will bring his band to The Craufurd Arms.

The front man, who also played with Amy Winehouse at the V Festival, is looking forward to his set in Wolverton on June 5.

He said: "I love the buzz and excitement I get from playing in front of the live audience.

"I really liked playing with Amy Winehouse, that was great."

If you can't get to see Nev and his band next month, don't fear – he will appear on Jeremy Kyle soon.

"We wrote a song about Jeremy Kyle, one of my favourite programmes, and they found it and liked it and have invited us to sit in the audience to an upcoming show," said Neville.

SHOULD YOU CASH IN YOUR PENSION TO BUY AN INVESTMENT PROPERTY?

Under the new Pension Freedom rules anyone aged over 55 with a money purchase pension can now cash it in and invest the proceeds into an investment property otherwise known as a buy to let.

However before you decide to do this do consider the consequences.

Only the first 25% of your pension is tax free when you encash it. The balance is taxed at your marginal rate of Income Tax which means at a rate of 20%-45%! So you could lose up to a third of your pension fund to Income Tax on encashment! Furthermore you will incur costs such as stamp duty, legal fees and surveyors' fees. The property will also need to be furnished.

Once the property is let out you will incur further costs each year such as letting agents fees, buildings insurance, repairs and maintenance and Income Tax on your rental income.

Then there is the hassle of actually managing the property including possible void periods when the property is between tenancies either because a tenant leaves and a new one isn't replaced immediately or because you need to redecorate and/or refurbish the property.

Tony Byrne
Financial Planning Director
Wealth And Tax Management

When the property is eventually sold the gain will be subject to Capital Gains Tax. When you die the property will form part of your estate and be subject to Inheritance Tax.

As property is an illiquid form of investment you may have to wait a long time to sell it when market conditions are bad.

Will the large amount of money in pensions available to invest in buy to let properties of itself cause an over supply of investment properties and result in rents falling? That would be very ironic indeed.

If you already own property and your pension is your only significant investment then by re-investing your pension money into an investment property you are putting all of your eggs into one basket. This lack of diversification leaves you very vulnerable to weakness in the UK property market.

Could you offer a home for a child or young person in care?

www.milton-keynes.gov.uk/fostering

Milton Keynes Council is keen to recruit people who could foster a young person or teenager. Foster carers come from all walks of life and all sections of the community. They offer children a nurturing, caring home environment where the children can begin to thrive and reach their potential.

As a foster carer, you will be provided with a comprehensive package of support and training together with a generous professional fee. It's a challenging role; one which will always ask a great deal from you. However, providing a home to a child who is unable to live with their family for a period of time can be wonderfully rewarding for everyone.

As part of our National Foster Care Fortnight activities between 1 – 14 June 2015 we are holding two informal drop in evenings for anyone who is interested in finding out more about becoming a foster carer.

Date: Wednesday 3rd & Tuesday 9th June 2015.
Time: 5pm – 6.30pm.
Venue: Saxon Court, Reception Area, 502 Avebury Boulevard, Milton Keynes MK9 3HS.

Chains of command: Mayor Keith McClean, right, with Derek Eastman

Mayor McClean one of The Pack

BY JACK ASH
editor@mk-news.co.uk

THE city's new mayor Keith McClean has a busy few months ahead, as he is also a volunteer helping out at the Rugby World Cup as part of The Pack.

In a ceremony last Wednesday, the Conservative councillor received the golden chain from outgoing mayor Derek Eastman.

His 12-month reign will see him chair MK Council meetings, attend a host of events and represent Milton Keynes on the national stage.

Mr Eastman is a serving Liberal Democrat councillor with the three parties taking it in turns to have a mayor.

Mayor McClean said: "It will be great seeing MK Dons in the Championship and, as a rugby player myself, having the Rugby World Cup in the city will be absolutely outstanding.

"I'm a member of The Pack and had applied for the role before I became mayor. I don't think there will be any other mayors of the host cities in The Pack!"

Alderman not happy about note

MILTON Keynes Council has apologised for referring to aldermen as 'alderpersons' in the programme notes of the mayor-making ceremony at the Civic Offices last week.

Paul Bartlett, an alderman, said: "I just thought it was farcical and ridiculous."

A council spokesman said: "Our apologies for any confusion caused – we have now changed this back."

Alderman is a title given to a councillor who has served a significant period of time at an authority – usually between 15 and 20 years.

‘Thank you for saving Thomas’

All smiles: Michelle Jefcoate, and Peter Wootton with Thomas and inset the riders

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

IT WAS an emotional day for one family who repeated the journey that could have been the last for their one-year-old son.

Thomas Wootton was rushed to Milton Keynes University Hospital after he started to have a fit in October 2014.

Staff managed to stabilise him after a terrifying 40-minute wait for his dad Peter and mum Michelle Jefcoate, from Newton Leys.

Thomas was then transferred to Southampton General Hospital where his treatment continued in the Intensive Care Unit .

On Sunday a group of Thomas’ family and friends, including his grandfather and uncle, cycled more than 100 miles from the hospital in Milton Keynes to the one in Southampton to raise money for those that helped him.

The ride raised £1,800 for MKH Charity and Friends of the Paediatric Intensive Care Unit at Southampton hospital (Friends of PICU).

Michelle, 28, who is also mum to three-year-old Lucie, said: “Thanks to Friends of PICU we were able to stay so near to Thomas in a parent room that made a horrific situation a little better. The care Thomas received at both hospitals was amazing.

“What the riders did for us is quite overwhelming and it was emotional going back to Southampton.

“There is a sense of pride that they are raising money for something that was so important to us.”

Thomas’ grandfather Ian Jefcoate, 59, said: “The ride was a success. The welcome at Southampton alone was worth it.

Dads run for NSPCC

ON SUNDAY July 12 hundreds will take on the 13.1 -mile NSPCC Milton Keynes Half Marathon, backed by MK NEWS. Sign up and join these super dads

ADRIAN Spurrell, 52, is a co-owner of The Red Thread Partnership Limited in Bletchley, which develops people and businesses.

He will be putting on his running shoes for the NSPCC and is urging others to join him.

He said: "This really appealed to me since I have four of my own children.

"I encouraged Freddie Guilmard (see right) to join me this year as he's also a dad and from that it's started to grow a bit. Hopefully we'll have a small mob next year but four is a good this year."

DO YOU remember Freddie Guilmard from Olney?

The 51-year-old is friends with Adrian Spurrell (see left) and MK NEWS reported on him when he took part in last year's NSPCC Milton Keynes Half Marathon.

The fellow co-owner of The Red Thread Partnership Limited said: "I wanted to take part for several reasons. I have always supported children's charities and this is a great cause.

"Secondly, I had a football accident a few years ago and as a result stopped running for a long time."

DAD Neil Solanki, 32, is an accountant from Bletchley.

As a member of Milton Keynes Redway Runners he can often be spotted pounding the pavements around the city.

Speaking about the NSPCC event he said: "I ran this last year and thoroughly enjoyed it.

"The charity does a great deal for children from all walks of life.

"It's for a fantastic cause, so make sure you sign up and join us dads now."

Roundabout rage

WE ALL know and love roundabouts in Milton Keynes, but it has to be said that some are better than others. We received dozens of comments on our Facebook page – facebook.com/mymkweb – when we asked readers to vote for the worst roundabouts in the city. Here's a selection of what you said...

"THE Roman roundabout in Bletchley, near the Tesco in Watling Street. Surely the most stupid design ever created."
Elizabeth Ellis

"KINGSTON roundabout, but let's face it, it's just bad drivers who don't want to follow the Highway Code."
Helen Pope

"THE one at Stantonbury Campus where people think it's okay to bypass the traffic by stopping on the roundabout to let their child in/out"
Harvey Jackson

"TESCO's Wolverton, roundabout needs to be bigger."
Chad McCallam

"YOU think Kingston roundabout is bad now, you wait til they do the work to put lights on it."
Thomas Humble

"THE Wolverton mini double roundabouts. I'm guessing whoever built it has never driven a lorry!"
Darren Trapps

"The Roman roundabout in Bletchley. Plus the Fenny roundabout and Kingston. Although it would make life a lot easier if people used the correct lanes"
Heide Keech

"KINGSTON. Everyone drives too fast and there's the constant fear someone's going to try and 'crash for cash' you."
Claire-Michelle Taverner-Pearson

Reporters rev up to

Scott Kirk takes on Jack Ash as the MK NEWS sports team hit the track to see who's the best driver

WITH the Monaco Grand Prix taking place last weekend, it was an apt time for fellow sports reporter Jack Ash and I to have a race of our own at an indoor karting track in Bletchley.

The set-up at Formula Fast, located off Bond Avenue, is certainly impressive.

There's a full safety briefing to start the day before you put on your jumpsuit, balaclava, gloves and helmet.

As we descended the stairs towards the track we saw a bank of pit lane computers that were used by the Toro Rosso team last year.

The team at Formula Fast drove to Italy to collect them to provide an authentic feel to the circuit.

When we started, I was rather surprised that I managed to catch up with Jack! I just about managed to overtake him despite some excellent defensive manoeuvres and won the race but it was the experience of karting that I will remember.

You feel every vibration from the track as you drive around – I would say it has a similar feel to a rollercoaster, the only difference being that you are in control of how fast you go.

We were also lucky enough to go on a double-kart with one of the instructors, who drove us round a few times, and as they were going about

SCOTT KIRK

- Age: 27
- Driving test passed: 2005
- Favourite Formula One driver: Damon Hill
- Driving style: Not good!

five seconds a lap quicker than we managed, you could really tell the difference in skill between us and them.

We were told the reason they were so much quicker was because they kept it simple.

We tried breaking and turning into a corner at the same time rather than breaking and then turning.

So our advice to anyone looking for success on the track at Formula Fast is to keep it simple!

Funfair and farm for 10th birthday

CHILDREN and staff at Broughton Primary School enjoyed a funfair, farmyard animals and zorbing to celebrate its 10th anniversary on Thursday.

Pupils also buried a time capsule capturing the school's history in pictures and stories near the memorial garden created in memory of deputy headteacher Helen Brazier, who died last year.

The celebrations started last Wednesday with a hog roast, special assembly and class performances.

Teens given chance to be a police cadet

BY SARAH LEE
editor@mk-news.co.uk

TEENAGERS are being invited to join a police cadet unit that has been set up in Milton Keynes.

The Thames Valley Police Cadets Scheme enables 13 to 18-year-olds to take part in neighbourhood policing initiatives and community activities and events alongside officers.

While cadets will not be out on independent patrols and do not have any legal powers, they will help with crime prevention initiatives, message and leaflet delivery, public safety campaigns and non-confrontational events. They will also be involved in events like Remembrance Day parades.

Supervised by cadet leaders, they will be given a uniform and 'trained to deal with people from all walks of life'.

The force will be recruiting cadets via schools and community groups in the area.

Supt Richard James, who is in charge of overseeing the scheme, said: "It is a fantastic opportunity for young people to gain a practical understanding of policing combined with volunteering in the community.

"We envisage a lot of interest from young people wanting to join our new units and we will do our best to accommodate those expressing an interest to join."

Those wanting to join must live in the area and should register their interest at www.thamesvalley.police.uk

Dancers leap into action for festival

FORGET dancing in the street, it's all about dancing in the park when the MÓTUS Dance Festival returns on Sunday.

The free festival will feature professional and community dancers with two opportunities to catch the action.

Audiences are invited to meet at MK Gallery at either 3pm or 5.30pm from where they will head to Campbell Park, with the performance culminating at the MK Rose.

The line-up of professional companies includes ZoieLogic Dance Theatre, Ceyda Tanc Dance and Inverted Company (Tamzen Moulding) with performances ranging from contemporary dance to Turkish folk dance and acrobatics.

Local schools are jumping on board with students from Denbigh and The Grove Independent schools working with professional choreographers on commissions.

Young people from Milton Keynes-based Initiate Youth Dance Company will also perform and Mark Niel, MK's poet laureate and development officer for MK Rose will be presenting a newly commissioned poem.

As a prelude to the main event, the MÓTUS team will present a Work In Progress event on Friday at Centric MK in Linford Wood.

Here, audience members will be able to give direct responses to the work on show – feeding into the creative process and development of new work.

Tickets for the event, taking place from 7.30pm-9.30pm, cost £5.95 and are available at www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/respond-motus-2015-tickets-16846730023

dinosaurrock

DINOSAUR Pile-Up (DPU) are an English alternative rock band who have drawn favourable comparisons to the cream of 90s US college rock.

Founded originally as a solo project by songwriter and frontman Matt Bigland, the line up is completed by drummer Mike Sheils and bassist Jim Cratchley.

Named after Matt saw the scene in Peter Jackson's remake of King Kong where a stampede of dinosaurs pile up at the foot of a mountain, DPU put out their first official release, The Most Powerful EP In The Universe, in 2009 and have gone on to record two studio albums – 2010's Growing Pains and 2013's Nature Nurture.

The band have toured extensively through the UK, Europe and the USA supporting acts such as Pixies, Cage The Elephant, Feeder, Twin Atlantic, You Me At Six and Middle Class Rut.

They will be performing at The Craufurd Arms on Sunday. Doors open at 7.30pm.

Tickets cost £10 in advance from www.thecraufurdarms.com

jacobeansounds

CAPTAIN Hume will bring their obscure and mad Jacobean songs to the Stony Live on Saturday, June 6.

They will be accompanied by Mr Simpson's Little Consort, with soprano Cate McKee, for the event at the York House Centre.

Inspired by the rich and diverse musical sounds of the 17th century, which featured the ups and downs of kingship and civil wars, Hume will perform from 7.30pm.

Tickets cost £10, or £8 for concessions, and are available from sue@piersnell.force9.co.uk or visit www.stonylive.info

JAPANESE food is something I'm not too familiar with so I was in an experimental mood when my partner and I decided to go to Akasaka in Stratford Road, Wolverton.

We'd heard very good things about the restaurant from friends so we thought we'd give it a go and the warm sake was the first thing I tried.

Once I got over how spicy it was, I actually quite enjoyed it! For starters we tried a miso soup, yaki gyoza (fried dumplings) and tako yaki (octopus meatballs).

We tried some sushi as well made of eel and hoki gai, which is a type of clam. All of it was stunning.

Akasaka is a very cute restaurant and it's definitely a place to take a partner because there's a real intimate feel to it.

ONE of folk music's shining lights, Megson, will be appearing at The Song Loft.

Three times nominated in the BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards and double winners of the Spiral Earth Awards, they draw heavily on their Teesside heritage to create their music.

The husband and wife duo bring an infectious mix of heavenly vocals, lush harmonies and driving rhythmic guitars.

Comprising Debs Hanna (vocals, whistle, piano, accordion) and Stu Hanna (guitar, mandola, banjo) Megson have gained fame not only for their intelligent songwriting, but for their exquisite musicianship and northern humour. They will play at The Song Loft, in The Cock Hotel in Stony Stratford High Street, at 8.15pm on Thursday, June 4. Reserve tickets, costing £12.50, at songloft@gmail.com or call 01908 566407. Tickets are also available on the door.

IN ITS latest monthly column, THE PARKS TRUST writes about the wonderful things to see at Willen Lake North WILLEN Lake North is home to one of Milton Keynes' best-known landmarks – the first Peace Pagoda to be built in the western world.

It was built by the monks and nuns of the Nipponzan Myohoji as a symbol of world brotherhood.

Above it, cherry trees commemorate the victims of war, while prayers and messages of hope decorate the nearby One World Tree.

Alongside the pagoda is the distinctive Buddhist Temple, where the public are welcome inside or to visit the grounds with their Japanese and Zen gardens.

Drawing on Native American culture, the stones of the medicine wheel are aligned with the earth's energies so that thoughts and wishes expressed at its heart may be 'amplified'.

Scrubland on the island is looked after by volunteers and The Parks Trust rangers to provide more varied habitats for a wide variety of bird species. Nearby, bird scrapes have been created to provide the shallow, sheltered waters that attract wading birds to the site.

TELEVISION viewers will remember Danielle Hope as the winner of the BBC talent show Over The Rainbow, which landed her the part of Dorothy in The Wizard of Oz.

Now, she's taking on another leading lady, this time as The Sound of Music's Maria.

The two roles are very different, with The Sound of Music giving the audience the opportunity to see the character develop into womanhood during the performance.

"This is my first adult leading lady role," Danielle told MKLIFE."So to make that transformation on stage, it's amazing."

The 23-year-old added: "I'm a big Disney fan, so I'm always singing Disney songs to the children, whether they like it or not."

Danielle will be performing at Milton Keynes Theatre daily until June 6.

No Hiding, just Smiling…

Have you lost a tooth? Hiding your smile? Feeling self-conscious about your teeth? …Why Wait to Smile?

Perfect Profiles Dental Implant Centres are ready for your call to let you know how they can help! Established in 2000, Perfect Profiles' sole aim has been to offer patients affordable dental treatment. Our experienced group of dentists and surgeons work as a team to provide treatments from single implants to complicated restorations including bone grafting.

Implants to replace missing teeth are just £680 each (Without prosthetic) - up to 70% cheaper than some private clinics in the UK- meaning there's no need to wait to get smiling again! 1000's of patients have passed through our door after completing successful implant treatment ranging from replacing a single tooth right through to restoring complete smiles and replacing tired old ill-fitting dentures.

Not sure what you may need or how much treatment will cost? FREE Consultations!

We like to ensure that you have all of the required information prior to making any decision about what treatment options you have including timelines and of course, costs. To assist you in this, Perfect Profiles offer initial consultations completely FREE!

By spending time both in and out of the dentist chair, we offer a relaxed and calm environment to evaluate the dentist's findings and easy to understand treatment plans for solutions offered. You will then comfortably leave the clinic with a fuller knowledge of the treatment paths available to you.

There is no-obligation to have your treatment with us but we do offer the Perfect Price Promise which acts as a pricematching scheme on our most popular treatments to give our patients further peace of mind (full details of this can be found on our website- www.perfectdental.eu.com).

Easy Access…

Our clinic locations at Luton (Houghton Regis), Bedfordshire and Wolverhampton, West Midlands have been carefully and considerately chosen to offer accessibility to patients from all corners of the UK. Wherever you are in England or Wales , it is likely that you are a two hour drive or less away from Perfect Profiles.

Do yourself a favour;

Contact Perfect Profiles today. You can ask any questions about treatment or book in for your free consultation by calling on 01582 518100 or by emailing enquiries@perfectprofiles.eu.com

If you've lost a tooth, you're losing more than a smile…

As soon as a tooth is lost, bone in that area will begin to resorb. Over time, this can lead to significant bone loss in the area weakening surrounding teeth and increasing the costs for reparative treatment. Dental implants osseo-integrate with the bone where a tooth has been lost meaning that bone resorbtion doesn't occur as it would if the tooth is not replaced.

Single Implant

- To replace 1 missing tooth on upper/lower jaw
- No damage to neighbouring teeth
- Screw retained or cement retained crown
- Tooth coloured crown (To match surrounding teeth)
- Porcelain bonded to metal crown or Zirconium crown options available
- 4-6 months healing time after implant is placed

① Implant placed into the bone where the tooth is missing lower right pre-molar ② Abutment screwed into implant
③ Arrow shows how the crown will be cemented on top of the abutment

Complete single tooth restoration (including crown) starts from £925. Call Perfect Profiles today to book your free consultation and learn more about restoring your smile! Full and partial restorations using implants are also available from our highly experienced team who have placed over 20,000 implants between them!

What Your Agent Has To Say

Estate Agents "same same but different"

Visiting Vietnam on holiday a few years ago I was delighted to meet so many beautiful people, try so many delicious foods and take in some breath taking and exotic scenery. Travelling from North to South the scenery changed quite drastically from mountains to jungle to white sand beach, but there was one consistent in every town, city and village we came to; the local street vendors selling their wares. Every market place and street would be crammed with an array of clothes and hand crafted merchandise of every description, all brightly coloured and hoping to catch the eye of the passing tourists. And in every town it was the same array of clothes and hand crafted merchandise of every description, all brightly coloured and hoping to catch the eye of the passing tourists. And every street vendor would strongly insist that their goods were definitely different from any of the others on sale nearby.

This led to the amusing moniker being adopted nationally 'same same but different' and was found on many a t-shirt, mug or poster. Which in turn led me to thinking, aren't all estate agents the same too?

Sure we all have different colours to identify ourselves. You have the reds, the blues, the greens and of course the pink. But surely we all do the same thing? We all advertise on the internet, in the newspaper and in our shop front window. We all arrange viewings, tie up deals and progress the sale through to the moving date on completion. So what really sets an estate agent aside from the competition?

As in many walks of life, what truly raises the bar isn't in what we do (because we actually do all do the same), it is in how we do it.

It's the confidence, the experience, the knowledge and importantly the enthusiasm that makes us different. Treating every client as though they are our only client, going the extra mile to show their properties to their maximum potential and making sure we match the right buyer to the right property to ensure a stress free moving experience. At Inspired Sales and Lettings we pride ourselves on having a dedicated property consultant to handle the entire process from start to finish for every property we take on to the market. Not only does this lead to a better selling price but it also means our homeowners are guided through every stage. So if you would like to find out how your property can benefit from an Inspired estate agent and how we can make a difference to you, please give one of our friendly staff a call and arrange a free, no obligation appraisal of your home on 01908 690700.

THE COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF MILTON KEYNES (OVERGATE (PART), CAMPBELL PARK) (TEMPORARY CLOSURE) ORDER 2015

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the Borough of Milton Keynes, intends to make an order under Section 16A of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, for the purpose of facilitating the holding of a relevant event, which is being promoted by Cara Waller, namely the 2015 Cancer Research UK's 'Race for Life', the effect of which is to temporarily prohibit all vehicular access along the whole length of Overgate, Campbell Park, Milton Keynes, from its junction with Glebe Roundabout to its junction with Cricket Green Roundabout. It is anticipated that the closure will be in operation on Sunday 28th June 2015 between the hours of 11.00 am and 12.30 pm. The closure will be in effect when the appropriate signs are in place.

Whilst this closure is in effect the alternative route for all traffic will be via Silbury Boulevard, Marlborough Gate and Avenury Boulevard and vice versa.

There shall be no exemptions from the provisions of the Order other than for emergency services vehicles, military vehicles on operational duties and any vehicles being used in connection with the event.

The order will come into operation on Sunday 28th June 2015 at 11.00 am and will continue in force for a maximum period of 3 days or until the completion of the event whichever shall be the sooner. It is expected that the event will remain in effect until 12.30 pm on Sunday 28th June 2015.

CO2 Dips To 89g/km In New 83 MPG Audi A3 TDI Ultra

A Premium compact hatchback famed for its quality and advanced technology makes another sizeable stride forward in efficiency. The 'ultra' badge which already marks out the model offering the most exceptional economy and the most scrupulously controlled emissions in five Audi ranges has now reached the A3 compact hatchback. The new A3 and A3 Sportback 1.6 TDI ultra models combine 83mpg capability with emissions of just 89g/km, and form part of an expanded 2016 Model Year A3 line-up that also brings quattro all-wheel-drive within even easier reach of prospective owners. All are available to order now and are expected to reach UK customers in August.

With optimised aerodynamics and advanced lightweight construction that has helped it to tip the scales up to 80kg lighter than its predecessor the A3 provides the perfect foundation for an ultra model. To create the A3 1.6 TDI ultra, the final drive ratio in the standard six-speed manual transmission working with the EU6-compliant 1.6 TDI engine has been modified, lowered sports suspension has been incorporated and special tyres have minimised rolling resistance.

Whether in three-door or five-door Sportback form the new 110PS variant, equipped exclusively with six-speed manual transmission, is capable of covering up to 83.1mpg according to the combined cycle test, equating to CO2 output of just 89g/km. The three-door version needs 10.5 seconds to reach 62mph from rest, closely followed by the Sportback at 10.7 seconds, and both models top out at 124mph.

For business users the benefits of even further reduced emissions are reflected in nil rate Vehicle Excise Duty and a drop in BIK band from 17 per cent to 16 per cent, contributing to an annual liability for a 40 per cent tax payer of £1,331.84, or just over £110 per month.

The remarkably frugal new engine is available in conjunction with SE and SE Technik specification levels incorporating specific adjustments which help to maximise its potential. When the ultra engine is present both options include 16-inch alloy wheels in specific designs, combined with low rolling resistance tyres, and both feature lowered sports suspension to minimise drag. They also share air conditioning, the acclaimed MMI radio with its slim, electrically folding screen, the Audi Music Interface, a Driver Information System, the Bluetooth mobile phone interface and a multi-function steering wheel.

SE Technik models add SD card-based satellite navigation over and above the SE version's standard navigation preparation, and also gain rear acoustic parking sensors, cruise control and a colour screen for the Driver Information System.

These well stocked equipment lists don't have to be the limit for A3 TDI ultra owners. They can also add features such as xenon or LED headlights, Milano leather upholstery and a technology package incorporating hard disk-based MMI navigation plus, MMI touch for data entry using fingertip 'writing' and Audi connect bringing numerous internet-based services to the car.

Drivers looking to add increased all-weather composure to the formula can also now choose a 1.6 TDI quattro version of the A3 Saloon or the five-door A3 Sportback. The former combines the rapid-acting multi-plate clutch-based all-wheel-drive system with six-speed manual transmission and Sport specification, and the latter with either SE or Sport options. Sport specification adds features such as 17-inch alloy wheels, sports suspension, sports seats with Rallye cloth upholstery, dual-zone electronic climate control and the Audi drive select adaptive dynamics system.

The most accessible route to quattro drive in the Audi range so far strikes an effective balance between running cost-focused economy and all-weather driveability. The three-door A3 Sportback 1.6 TDI quattro can reach 62mph from rest in 11.2 seconds, continue to 120mph and return up to 60.1mpg according to the combined cycle test, corresponding to CO2 output of 127g/km (with 16-inch wheel).

The popular 2.0-litre TDI 150PS engine which sits on the rung above the enhanced 1.6-litre unit in the TDI line-up is also newly available with quattro drive as part of the 2016 Model Year changes, joining the 2.0-litre TDI 184PS version in offering front-wheel-drive or all-wheel-drive options.

All body styles are available with this new combination, and it can be paired with either Sport or S line specification. In three-door form the new A3 2.0 TDI quattro with 150PS and six-speed manual transmission can accelerate to 62mph in 8.2 seconds and reach a top speed of 133mph. Combined economy is 58.9mpg with the 17-inch wheel that forms part of the Sport specification, or 57.6mpg with the range-topping 18-inch S line wheel, resulting in CO2 outputs of 125g/km and 127g/km respectively.

Mazda2 range - Preview

2 TO THE POWER OF 3

The Mazda2 returns smarter and sharper than ever. It packs in some big car features into a pertly-styled body, features some classy 1.5-litre petrol and diesel engines that make great real-world economy and the interior's built better than you'd believe. It's a real contender to the likes of the Fiesta, Corsa, 208 and Clio.

Buyers get to choose between either a 1.5-litre petrol engine or a 1.5-litre diesel in a variety of different guises. The petrol motor is offered in 75, 90 or 115PS outputs, while the diesel cranks out a healthy 105PS and, more pertinently, 220Nm of torque at just 1,400rpm. It's easily the pick of the bunch. Power is transferred to the front wheels via five- and six-speed manual transmissions as well as a six-speed automatic. All are newly developed compact, lightweight versions of the acclaimed gearboxes offered on other new-generation Mazdas.

The suspension has been set up to be Volkswagen-firm which you'll feel on poor surfaces but the flipside of this is that the Mazda2 offers reassuring body control in corners. The steering is an electrically-assisted system, so don't expect bucketloads of feedback, but you can count on clean response and perfect accuracy. With a sporty feel and easy manoeuvrability, the Mazda2 is more than just a city scoot. It's got a welcome element of long distance versatility too.

All around the world there are languages dying out but Mazda's designers seem to have one all of their own when they start describing the Mazda2. To most people the 'KODO - Soul of Motion' design doesn't really mean a lot.

Suffice to say it looks quite a bit like the existing CX5, Mazda 3 and Mazda6, which means a flowing blend of curves, lots of shape in the flanks and a gaping front grille. It looks better than it sounds, especially when specified with a decent set of alloys.

The interior's probably the biggest surprise. We expected the cabin to be boldly-styled but built out of some shiny plastics and with ergonomics that were a bit hit and miss. It's anything but. In fact, the design is relatively clean and conservative, but the colour combinations that Mazda offers are a knockout and the materials quality is genuinely surprising. It's spacious too. By stretching the wheelbase by 80mm, Mazda has delivered a decently-sized passenger cell for a five-supermini. There's a big glove box and door pockets that can hold large bottles. The boot's deep and boasts 280-litres of room with the seats in place or 960-litres when they're folded, which is just a few litres off that of the latest Fiesta.

Clearly much is going to hinge on how the Mazda2 is priced in relation to key rivals like the Ford Fiesta, the Vauxhall Corsa, the Peugeot 208 and the Renault Clio but from what we've seen thus far, this car looks as if it's coming out all guns blazing. We wholeheartedly applaud Mazda's commitment to real world rather than fantasy land fuel economy figures and were genuinely shocked by the quality of the car's interior.

The last Mazda2 was there or thereabouts and sold well as a result. Make no mistake, this one has could well break into the very top echelon of superminis.

MK DONS

Retained list is revealed

IAN McLoughlin and Will Summerfield were the only two casualties after MK Dons revealed their retained list.

Contracts have been offered to David Martin, Lee Hodson, captain Dean Lewington, Tom Flanagan, Antony Kay and Dean Bowditch and whether they accept those offers will become apparent over the next few weeks.

Jordan Spence, Daniel Powell and Charlie Burns have all had options in their contracts extended, which will see them remain at stadiummk for another year.

Carl Baker has done the same, which was announced two weeks ago.

McLoughlin struggled during a run in the team when Martin was injured last season and Robinson said the keeper wanted to play first-team football.

"He should be a number one somewhere and we've got Dave as our number one," said Dons manager Karl Robinson.

"We had a discussion and he felt he wanted to push on and get that opportunity so it's for the benefit of his career and we wish him all the luck in the world."

Perhaps a surprise from the list is that Tom Flanagan has been offered a one-year contract.

Flanagan made just nine appearances for Dons last season and he had a loan spell at League Two Plymouth Argyle in January, but Robinson believes last season's defence was so good that he didn't have many opportunities to impress in the first team.

Released: Goalkeeper Ian McLoughlin will be looking for a new club after he was released by Dons

"It's a bit unfair because the boys have done so well this year he hasn't been given that opportunity," said Robinson.

"Fans will recall Yeovil and Doncaster away and he was magnificent when called upon.

"Just because he hasn't played doesn't mean that he doesn't get the opportunity."

The Championship line-up was decided over the weekend as Hull City joined Burnley and QPR in getting relegated from the Premier League. Preston North End beat Swindon Town 4-0 in the League One play-off final to join Dons in the second tier of English football, while Middlesbrough lost their play-off final match against Norwich City, so they also play in the Championship next season.

It all means if Dons fans wanted to go to every single away match next season, they would have to travel 5,452 miles - the same distance as flying to Los Angeles.

Net interest: James Hadfield

Lightning strike for netminder James

MK LIGHTNING boss Pete Russell has added netminder James Hadfield to his roster ahead of the start of the 2015-16 season.

Hadfield, 22, comes from Guildford Flames and has represented Great Britain U18s in the World Junior Championships.

Since then he has gone on to play for Swindon Wildcats and has spent the last three seasons as Guilford Flames' number two behind Mark Lee.

"I'm really looking forward to being a member of the Lightning organisation and to being part of a winning team," said Hadfield.

"We have a great coach in Pete Russell and it became apparent to me that to move to MK was the right thing, once I'd spoken to him and discussed what his plans were."

Russell said: "Over the last season James has been developing very well.

"Every time I saw him I was impressed and he handled the situations and pressure very well."

Meanwhile, Grant McPherson will return to Lightning next season, which will mark his 10th at the club.

The season will also see McPherson awarded a testimonial to reward his decade of service.

"It's a real honour to be awarded a testimonial," McPherson said.

"Never in my wildest dreams did I think this would happen to me."

CRICKET

Great Brickhill stay third in Cherwell League

A POOR start in the second innings cost Stony Stratford as they lost by 85 runs to Old Northamptonians.

Kamran Anwar and Stephen Richardson picked up a couple of wickets apiece as Stony's opponents notched up 248-6 in the first innings.

Stony's top order collapsed to just 13-4 though which put them in a terrible position, and they did well to only be all out for 163, with Nick Allen unbeaten on 40 and Prasanna Chandran scoring 39 in their Northants Premier League match.

In the Cherwell Cricket League, Great Brickhill beat Banbury Seconds by four wickets.

Iqbal John picked up four wickets while Ahad Khan claimed three as Banbury were bowled out for 171. In reply, Graeme Carter's 56 and 50 from Mark Nelson helped Great Brickhill to victory.

A score of 55 from Babar Rajar helped Wolverton Town to 177 in the first innings but Cumnor reached that target with six wickets to spare to seal victory and keep Wolverton eighth in the table.

In the Four Counties League, Milton Keynes beat strugglers New Bradwell by four wickets, with Daniel Ramsell's 4-26 proving particularly effective in getting New Bradwell out for 142.

Neil Gordon's score of 34 was the highest for Milton Keynes as they reached their target despite the best efforts of Paul Fox, who claimed three wickets.

Asif Iqbal's 55 not out helped Milton Keynes City claim a draw against Biddenham as they scored 201-8 in reply to their opponent's 238 in the first innings.

A good start from New City (Milton Keynes') batters helped them to beat Buckland & Aston Clinton by three wickets, while North Crawley won yet again - they beat Elstow by six wickets, with Matt Goss 128 not out.

SPORTSSHORTS

MOTORSPORT

ANDREW Jarman will drive Aston Martin Racing's GT2 V8 Vantage at the Aston Martin Le Mans Festival. The exclusive race, held during the morning build-up to this year's 24 hours of Le Mans, will be Andrew's first experience of the world-famous Circuit de La Sarthe on June 13.

ATHLETICS

MARSHALL Milton Keynes athletes won 85 medals at the annual Buckinghamshire AA County championships, of which 35 were gold medals.

Among the highlights were Ebony Carr leading home a 1-2-3 in both F17 100m and 200m.

Two gold medals were won by MMKAC athletes in other counties – Redford Curtis set a championship best in winning the M20 javelin in the Oxfordshire Champs(57.40m) and Charlotte Bailey won the Bedfordshire F15 high jump title clearing a personal best of 1.46m.

CYCLING

CYCLING'S premier televised city centre racing series started earlier this month and the city's top racing teams have been in the thick of the action. The men's Bradwell Abbey-based Madison-Genesis outfit is now leading the way in the Tour Series after five of the 12-race series, the last of which took place in Aberystwyth on Friday.

Tom Stewart is in possession of the Sprinters Points jersey and the team are leading the series, despite having a tough hill climb in Wales.

Abi van Twisk, 17, finished eighth in Corley Cycles-Drops RT Women's team's first race in the Matrix Fitness Grand Prix series. Charlotte Broughton came home in 14th. The pair were racing against London 2012 Olympic double gold medallist Laura Trott and other Olympic and World gold medallists.

BADMINTON

WHILE international commitments mean Chris Adcock won't be able to lead the University of Nottingham into the inaugural National Badminton League Finals Day, the Milton Keynes ace is confident his team can do the business.

After finishing the NBL in third place, University of Nottingham head to the K2 in Crawley on Sunday June 7 knowing they must get past rivals Team Derby for a chance to be the first team to get their name on the trophy.

"It's disappointing that we're not going to have a full strength side but I believe in the guys," said Adcock, who will be competing in the Indonesian Open.

The UK's first ever National Badminton League (NBL) season comes to a thrilling finale on Sunday, June 7, at K2 Crawley. Tickets are now available at nationalbadmintonleague.co.uk

NON-LEAGUE FOOTBALL

GRASSROOTS football in Milton Keynes and West Bedfordshire has received a £4,500 boost in the form of a Grow the Game grant from the Football Foundation, the country's largest sports charity.

The grant will allow Woburn & Wavendon FC to grow one Under 18 girls 'Lioness' team and one Under 17 boys 'Lions' team for next season.

Additional coaching and refereeing opportunities with the FA have also been granted.

Fourth delights Kvyat in Monaco

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

DANIIL Kvyat claimed a career-best fourth place at the Monaco Grand Prix for Red Bull at the weekend.

In an incident-packed race which saw team-mate Daniel Ricciardo finish fifth and Mercedes driver Nico Rosberg claiming a third straight win.

Red Bull haven't had the most blistering of Formula One campaigns this season, with their Renault engine coming in for a lot of criticism, but their form took a marked upward turn in Monte Carlo.

Kvyat took the position early on in the race with Ricciardo in fifth and that order was maintained throughout the first stint with the Red Bulls keeping Kimi Raikkonen at bay.

Kvyat made his only visit to the pit lane on lap 28, stopping for the harder tyre. He rejoined in P9. Ricciardo left it later to take on his set of prime soft tyres, heading into the pits on lap 36. Raikkonen, though, stayed out a lap longer and the Ferrari driver's laps either side of his stop allowed him to sneak past Ricciardo.

Lewis Hamilton was busy carving out what looked like an unassailable lead over Rosberg and by lap 60 he had some 14 seconds in hand over his team-mate. Vettel still held third ahead of Kvyat, with Raikkonen fifth and Ricciardo sixth. Perez held seventh ahead of Jenson Button, Felipe Nasr and Lotus' Romain Grosjean.

On lap 60, Max Verstappen crashed bringing out the safety car, leading to a flurry of pit stops. Kvyat stayed out, banking on keeping his soft tyres together, but in the hope of progressing forward, Ricciardo stopped for supersofts.

Ricciardo overtook Raikkonen with a bold move that resulted in a brief investigation but no sanction came from the stewards and he closed in on Kvyat.

In the hope that Ricciardo could put pressure on Hamilton, Kvyat allowed his team-mate through but when no way around the Mercedes driver could be found, the Aussie let Kvyat past again on the last lap.

"I am happy with today's race, it was my best finish in Formula One and it was a great result for the team to finish fourth and fifth," said the Russian. "I had a good start and was able to control my race from then on. We took a gamble with strategy allowing Daniel (Ricciardo) past after the last safety car to try and fight for a podium position, as he was on the faster Supersoft tyres.

"But as he was unable to pass anyone, as agreed, he gave the place back on the last lap. We hope we can carry this momentum onto the next races."

Ricciardo said he had enjoyed the chance to push for the podium place in the race's closing stages but that he was happy to give the place back to Kvyat when the bid didn't work out.

"I had some fun in the last few laps trying to get close to Hamilton and Vettel to fight for a podium position.

"The team worked well, Dany let me past to have a crack at the podium and I gave back the place on the last lap when I couldn't get past Hamilton.

"We'll try and keep up the pace in the next few races to hopefully stay in the top five."
